Shifters, a love-triangle, and perhaps a baby on the way? Will Molly's bear-protector keep his loyal promise to her in the midst of all this insanity? Laura, a bartender at the Broken Bone, has spent her whole life living in the small town of Flint Creek. She's used to long nights serving the regulars, punctuated only by the occasional traveler spender the night in the motel down the road. But the daily pattern of her life is broken one night when Joseph walks in with his biker group, the Grizzlies.

He's incredibly hot, and Laura feels immediately attracted to him. They quickly form a connection that neither of them can ignore. However, things are complicated by Rachel: another member of the Grizzlies who's jealous of Laura. And things are also complicated by the fact that the Grizzlies aren't just a biker gang, but a pack of bear shifters. Rachel insists that Laura and Joseph are too different to be make it work. Is she right? Or will they find a way to be together despite their differences? AUTHOR'S NOTE: This is a stand-alone story with an HEA, so no cliff-hangers!
