Justin Smith, a fourteen year old student from Gulf Shores Alabama, has been waking up with nightmares ever since he returned from the In-Between. Nobody believes he, and his six friends traveled to a different world and fought in count battles in the few hours it took for the to reappear at the church. Now his fearful parents are making him relive his adventures to a psychiatrist that clearly thinks he is crazy. Even worse than this they have to deal with a new principle that treats them like terrorists. After all he has been through can he make it out of high school and live for Jesus, the Son of God?
