Wendy Darling is now twenty five and her parents are despairing of ever finding her a husband. She drives all suitors away as soon as she starts talking about Neverland.

However she is going to find this new one difficult to turn away because he knows all about Neverland. Wendy returns with her new husband to Neverland and all the familiar characters are there including the mermaids, the Indians, Tiger Lilly, the crocodile, Tinker Bell and of course Peter and the Lost Boys. But there is a darkness permeating Neverland as Peter is still in the grips of the madness that led him to kill all but three of the pirates and the magic of Neverland cannot find a new pirate to play the villain against Pan's dark hero. Well if it can't find one then it will create one from one of the bloodiest pirates in history. And at the heart of the Mountain in Neverland dark magic stirs as a goddess awakes. Her intention is to crown Flint, kill all others who resist, and keep Neverland like it has been for centuries.

Wendy and Hook must find a way to defeat the plans of the White Witch of Neverland and at the end of the story Wendy must prove beyond a doubt that she is the true Pirate Queen.
