This reindeer has agreed to be punished on Christmas Eve, but he's in for more than he ever bargained for. Rudy screwed up on Thanksgiving by giving out the security code to Kinky Kritters to a couple of humans. He put the club and the shifters in it at risk, and he has to pay for that. Lady Leo is ready to forgive him, as long as he submits a public punishment to show everyone just how sorry he is. Thomas is experienced in giving punishments. He used to work professionally for Critters on Call, but he's left that life behind. When his old boss, Clyce, calls him for one last favor, Thomas agrees, but this is no simple task, and Rudy isn't so easy to leave behind.
