Olivia is a sophisticated sexy intelligent woman. who may have finally found the love of her life. Despite his many flaws, she isn't willing to let him go for his past mistakes. They say opposites attract, and like a magnetic force. The two were joined together as if they'd been destined to be. In a whirlwind of unexpected and surprising romance. All was good for the moment. The problem came when the people that surrounded them learned of the two romantic relationships. Adrian aka (Ace) is a man whose past seems to rub people the wrong way. Unable to catch a break, he is in the midst of turning his life around.

The one good thing that has happened to him was meeting and falling for a woman by the name of Olivia. Although they come from two different worlds. He is willing to do whatever it takes to make her happy. Everything was going great until he began to notice signs that she was uneasy with him being labeled as her man publicly. Now nearly all of Olivia's family and even her friends and colleagues don't approve of her dating Adrian. As much as neither wanted to give up on the other, the relationship is put to the test. With everyone surrounding them being against them.

Eventually, their bond is broken, and both go their own separate ways. Which leaves them to become miserable without one another. How can you stop loving someone that simply fulfills all of your desires? How can you go days on end, knowingly and yearning for the one person that simply takes you away from any and all worries? It's unexplainable for them both and for Olivia he's simply irresistible. He's like a force of nature and ladies we've all been there before...
