A watery death.

A ghost with four legs and a tail. And a heap of suspects! Lorna Shadow, Helen, and Flipper have only just begun to enjoy life in their new house with Zach, Jessie the dog, and Gunner, when a job offer arrives and they head off for work in the glorious county of Cornwall. When they arrive, they find an exhausted widow, a sneaky assistant, a mistress, and a mysterious death on their hands. When Lorna discovers the death of Blake Carlisle was anything but accidental, she must tread carefully to discover exactly what happened to him. Was his affair with a younger woman the cause of his death? Or did a family member want him out of the way to lay claim to the family fortune? And who decided it would be fun to shove Lorna off a yacht and into the sea? With trouble brewing at home, and a possible marriage proposal on the cards, Lorna has a lot to think about. Not forgetting Helen's 'secret' relationship and figuring out why poor Flipper keeps getting so sick. Enjoy this fun-filled cozy ghost mystery. Meet a friendly ghost dog and puzzle through the clues to discover the murderer and help the ghost find justice. This is book 7 in the Lorna Shadow cozy ghost mystery series.
