When Vanessa impulsively takes off from Sausalito, California on a drive to Wyoming to hopefully retrieve the car her ex-boyfriend stole, she never expected she would break down on a dirt road in the middle of the night, in the middle of nowhere. And when she walks into the only open establishment in walking distance, what appears to be a dangerous biker bar, she doesn't expect to meet Finn Reardon, the sexy as hell bar owner who offers her up a bet too irresistible to turn down. Finn knew it the moment she walked through the doors of his bar, Vanessa Rhodes was submissive.

As an experienced Dominant, he wants her to recognize this for her own good. More importantly though, he just plain wants her. Everything about her appeals to him. When Vanessa loses the bet to Finn, she agrees to stay with him for a week, allowing him to teach her what it means to be a sub. But will one week be enough...for either of them?
