Aiden's insatiable appetite for women keeps him complacent living the life of a steadfast bachelor. A U.S. Army veteran and business owner, his stunning good looks and accolades attract many women in his upscale wine bar. It isn't until he meets the alluring yet paradoxical Celeste that his attitude about commitment begins to change. He is drawn to the enigma of this beautiful woman, yet constrained by his painful secrets. When an unexpected revelation and insight into his past are exposed, Aiden must choose between this passionate love affair or exiling his heart from her betrayal. The entwining of their secrets threatens to destroy them both, just as the buds of their new-found love come to fruition. Will he triumph over his bitter past and fight for true love or is their romance destined to wither like the barren vines after a successful vintage?
