Jay Wilson tells the tale of a madman shipwrecked on a remote island in “The Lost Journal.” Somewhere else a monster haunts a young boy well into manhood who finds an unlikely ally to save him from certain death in “Outside the Window.” “The Demons Among Man” is a riveting story about a woman who seeks revenge for an unforgiveable act, and in “Three Minutes” a man brings an explosive surprise home, giving him a mere 180 seconds to survive.

Jay explores the darkness that lies within humanity’s current evolution in “System Shock”, where technology opens a door to a dangerous creation. In “Dionaea Muscipula,” a woman delivers a pizza to an address that just may be her final destination. In this collection of 50 short stories, Jay blends darkness with the light creating a terrifying twilight of nightmares.
