A mystery and thriller short read new release. Ned Fain is a damaged man. Crippled in a bomb blast in Afghanistan the ex-army JAG officer has lost his wife, lost his career and may be losing his mind. People cringe at the sight of his burned face; added to that he's flat broke. But when Ned witnesses a bizarre murder in the polar bear pit at the zoo, his basic instinct for justice kicks in. It's added incentive that a pretty woman needs his help, and he sets out to expose the killer and conquer his own demons.
