I want to be inspired. I want to be inspired by artists, by creative and passionate people. My goal is to share my knowledge to inspire others, to create and innovate because the progress is made by innovators. This book is all about creative design, about creative shoemaking and techniques that you can use in your creations. This is the first time I share my Freehand Pattern Construction Technique, that I use in my work.

This is the only natural 3D pattern making without using computer software technique and it's protected by copyright laws. You are welcome to use it in your work but you cannot teach without my permission.

Table of content: 1. Classic models of shoes and why you need them.4 2. Must know pattern points or the secret of making correct pattern from the first time.10 3. Don't wait for a muse, rely on design process techniques.21 4. The bad the good and the ugly- 3 Methods of footwear design.24 5. Shortcut to creative footwear design - Freehand Pattern Construction Technique.

34 6. How to build an entire collection just with 2 types of lasts.35
